

The Organizational Science Summer Institute, a component of the interdisciplinary Organizational Science Ph.D. Program at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, is currently seeking qualified applicants.

Organizational Science Summer Institute (OSSI)
May 10-15, 2020
Now Accepting Applications for 2020 Summer Fellows

To be considered for an Institute Fellowship you must:

- Be a rising junior or senior
- Have a minimum 3.0 GPA
- Have an interest in pursuing a graduate degree
- Be willing to commit to a week of intensive research training
- Have an interest in studying topics related to organizations
- Be a member of an underrepresented student population

Institute Fellows will receive:

- A small monetary stipend
- Travel related expenses
- Housing and food
- Intense GRE preparation
- Hands-on research with faculty and doctoral students
- Doctoral student mentors
- Network with national experts on graduate education
- An invaluable jump start on your graduate education

For more information:

www.ossi.uncc.edu

- or - contact Dr. Enrica Ruggs at 704-687-1365 / orgsciencesummer@uncc.edu

Application Deadline: February 3, 2017